In ye Name of God Amen. The xxiijth daye of Julij, anno dñi 1594. & in ye yeare of ye Reigne of or Soveraine Ladie Elizabeth by ye Grace of God Queene of Eng. ffr. & Ire. &c. xxxvj. I Thomas Dutton of Hengam in ye Comitie of Essex Clarke, being sicke in bodie, but in good & perfitte Memorie, Laude & praise be vnto Allmightie God for ye same, doe make, ordaine, & declare this my Last will & Testament in Manor & fourme followinge. ffirst I commende my Soule into ye Handes of allmightie God ye ffather, Sonne, & holie Ghoste. & my bodie to be buried in ye Churchyarde of Hengam aforesayd. Item I will & Margarett my wife shall have ye howse wherin I now dwell, wth ye Gardine, & all ye appurtenances thereto belonginge, to her, & her use duringe her Naturall life. Item I my said wife duringe her naturall life shall have xxxiij yeares ye Somme of xxj li of Lawfull monie, paid vnto her quarterlie by ye Executor of this my Last will. Item I give vnto my said wife all my debtes or Monie yt is owinge vnto me whatsoever. Item I will & (after my said wyves decasse) ye said howse wherin I now dwell, wth ye Gardine, & all ye appurtenances thereto belonginge, shall remaine vnto my Sonne Robert Dutton, & to his heires for ever. & I & in consideration therof shall paye vnto his brother Thomas Dutton vij li. of good & Lawfull monie of England, wthin one Moneth after I & ye said Robt by good & sufficient assurance shall enioye all ye premisses. but yf it fall out otherwise, I & cannot enioye ye same, but I by Lawe or by order of ye Lordes Court & must departe from them, & yf it come to passe I & his brother Thomas shall possesse them, then I will I & the said Thomas shall paye vnto ye foresaid Robt ye li li Somme of vij li. of good & Lawfull Monie of Englande wthin one Moneth next after ye said his possession. Item I give vnto Agnes Wabe my daughter ye Somme of iij li. vjs viijd, to be payd vnto her by my Executs wthin two yeares next after my wives decasse. Item I give vnto Susanna Stanes my daughter xxs to be payd vnto her by my Executs wthin one yeare after my wives decasse. Item I give vnto ye said Susanna after my wives decasse, my black Cuttes, a Stoole, a pewter platter, a pewter dishe, & a Chest. Item I will & Katherine Purell shall have ye occupyinge of my brasse potte duringe her life, & after her decasse I give ye said potte vnto Thomas Purell, & to his heires for ever. Item I give vnto ye said Thomas Purell xxs to be payd vnto him by my Executs all his age of xxiiij yeares. Item I give vnto Thomas Dutton my Godsonne vjs viijd. Item I give vnto Robert Dutton my Godsonne vjs viijd. Item I give vnto ye repayringe of Hengam Church iijs to be payd by my Executs all ye dayes of my buriall. Item I will & my wife (duringe her life) shall have ye vse & occupyinge of all my Moveables (except ye brasse potte before named) & yf she marie a[gain] & be in povertie, then my will is & she shall sell some of ye Moveables (not before given to Susanna) to helpe her selfe wthall. but she shall give alwayes none. Item I will & all my Moveables wch my wife shall have, & wch are not before bequeathed shall be distributed amonge my fower children Robert, Thomas, Katherine & Agnes, equallie devided by my Supervisors. Item my will is & yf anie of ye doness to whom I have bequeathed anie thinge doe by decease ye time & this should weare ye Legacies, then ye same Legacie shall goe equallie to their Children. All the reast of my goodes & Chattells vnsett soone my debtes payd, & my funerralls discharged, I give vnto my Executour, whom vnderlie & alone so to be I doe ordaine & constitute Robt Dutton my Sonne. & the Supervisors of this my said Last will I request & desire ye Minister of this parishe of Hengam aforesaide for ye time being, to be.

provided, yt whereas at ye Making of this my Last will, there is intended a Sale & bargaine of my howse, wherin now dwelleth my Sonne in Lawe John Purnell, that & should have the same howse paying for it ye Somme of fyve pounds of Lawfull monie of England, vpon ye feast daye of St Michaell ye Archangell next ensuinge ye date of this will. & therfore ye said John Purell shall paye ye said Monie all ye tyme & place appointed, & shall so enioye ye howse, then I will that this my foresaid Testament doe stande in all respects as it is written wthout anie addition. but yf he faile of ye foresayd payment all ye daye, then I will ye bargaine to be voide, & that my Executs for his assignes shall sell ye said howse to ye most advantage, or kepe it to their vse, as they will. & that then he shall give vnto Katherine Purell my daughter, as my Legacie bequeathed vnto her, ye Some of iij li vjs viijd wthin ij yeares after my wives decasse. & all my Testament in all other respects to stande as is afore written wthout alteration.

Essex Archives Online
from the Essex Record Office