

[illegible]

I will give by said Tyme his exchequer & assigne, shall paye or cause to be paid out of and for his said Tyme his summe of fiftie pounds of lawfull money of England to the use of his children of Elizabeth Meade my sister in manner & forme followinge, That is to saye to Marye my wife of Tyme Tyme his summe of twenty pounds, when one yere next after my decesse And unto George my wife of Tyme Tyme his summe of twenty pounds when two yeres after my decesse And to George Meade & when my yere next after my decesse. And further I will and my mynde is, that if default be made in all or in any of his said payments, that then it shalbe or shalbe to be repaid such default so made, soe shortly after into his said Meade's said & assigns his heirs & assigns & he same shalbe bounde & take his due right and fulfill his said promise & shalbe so repaid, soe fully satisfied of his said several legacies, and of his said promise (nomine pnd) for every such default. Item I give and bequeath unto Tyme Tyme his summe of Tyme Tyme my brother's decesse (after his decesse of Tyme my wife) all his my Meade's Lande & tenements pastures and hereditaments, aswell as is customary, situate & beinge in the parishes of Tyme Tyme Monksbury and Tyme, or any of them (by what name soe ever he be called) w^{ch} I late had of his gift and bequest of Tyme Tyme my brother's decesse (except his said Tyme hath Tyme in estate for term of his natural life) And all my Tyme Tyme & Tyme Tyme & Tyme Tyme in and to his said promise and estate of them And also all his Tyme Tyme & Tyme Tyme w^{ch} he hath in Tyme Tyme afore said, and his Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme estimation one acre and a halfe w^{ch} I had of his surrender of one John Meade. To have & to hold all and singular his said promise w^{ch} he hath appoynted, And his said Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme decesse of his said Tyme my wife, unto his said Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme and assigne for ever. Item I give & bequeath most unto his said Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme
 livinge & beinge in Tyme Tyme afore said w^{ch} I late purchasid of willm Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Lande & tenements by estimation for ever, and two other parts of customary Land & tenements by estimation one acre livinge in Tyme Tyme afore said w^{ch} I likewise had of his surrender of his said willm Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme have and to hold all and singular his said last mentioned promise unto his said Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme and assigne for ever immediately from and after my decesse. Item I have & am bounden by obligation in his said Tyme Tyme of one hundred pounds, unto one Stephen Robbes decesse, w^{ch} condition & to content that I should lead and assigne by my last will or otherwise unto his said Tyme my wife for & duringe the term of his natural life. One customary meadowe in Tyme Tyme afore said called Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme of his Tyme Tyme of his said Tyme Tyme my brother, and his summe of Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme Tyme not I lately had possession of the Manor of Colindale Hall And my wife I have aliened in satisfaction of the said bond) Comendred the said meadows called Colindale, and the aforesaid customary meadows containing one acre & a half called Barne, but the best of the said alien my wife demourge the natural life, suppose it is also aliened in my wife. Now I will & devise, in further satisfaction of the said bond, and performance of the intent of the said condition, unto the said alien my wife, one part of the said meadows lying in the parish of Colindale, called also by the name of Barne, not I late bought of one Richard Clarke, to have and to hold unto the said alien and her assigns demourge the natural life, provided always, that neither she the said alien, nor her assigns, shall fee, receive or take any real profit or tithes upon the said alien meadows, at any time, other than for rent and necessary expenses to be occupied and spent only. And after the death of the said alien I will and bequeath the said alien meadows called Barne to the said Richard Clarke, the sonne of Richard Clarke, to him his heirs and assigns forever. And after the death of the said alien my wife, demourge the natural life, all that my first Messuage or Tenement with appurtenances which I now dwell, situate and being in Colindale aforesaid, and all the lands tenements meadows pastures and hereditaments hereditables belonging unto the said alien at Colindale, by right name of the said sonne be called, not I late purchased of Robert Wymington Esquire and the said sonne, or either of them, and all that the said sonne & part of ground, not I late purchased of Henry Wymington, all not said in last mentioned premises are situate and being in the parish of Colindale Colindale & Colindale, or some of them; And also I give unto the said alien the Exchequer & assigns, all my movable goods, robes, rathes and implements of household (except such things as hereafter bequeath unto the said Richard Clarke sonne of John Clarke, and except the lease or leasehold parts, and the table and form in the hall, not lease and table I will to remain to the said sonne not the said Messuage, and except my said interest lease and term of years in the said Messuage & premises called premises) And not the said Messuage or Tenement where I dwell not the said lands and tenements hereditables belonging unto the said alien robes and implements of household (except before excepted) I give unto the said alien upon the said condition felonage and not otherwise. I give it to the said alien the said alien shall not, and do not challenge have or claim any kind or doner out of, or for any my lands tenements and hereditaments excepted And upon condition, that the said alien, not in one month after my death, shall lawfully become bounden by obligation unto my Exchequer hereditables named in the sum of one hundred pounds, not condition, that neither she the said alien, nor any other for her, shall challenge have or claim any kind or doner, out of any my lands tenements or hereditaments excepted, and that she will accept and take the said lands and tenements goods and other things in this my will to her bequeathed in full recompense of her said service or dowry, and likewise that she shall not, nor will not, commit, suffer or do any waste or destruction in or upon any of her goods or household stuff by her or by any other person (but shall sufficiently from time to time repair, maintain and charge her said lands in sufficient repair, nor shall she or any other or take any wood, timber or other thing upon any of her said premises by her or by any other person, and otherwise her for necessary household furniture and other things to be arranged and spent and not otherwise regard, And if she said Alice refuse, or do not become bound, as is aforesaid, or do otherwise or otherwise any thing or do any of the said lands tenements or hereditaments, then I will and desire, that all the her said good rooms, halls and appurtenances of her said house, before by her bequeathed, and her said messuage together with the messuage, and all her said land meadows and pastures hereditaments with her said house, and all her said estate and profit of her said house and manors to my said executor and his assigns touching the last of her said Alice, to be by him bestowed and divided to such of her or devised, as shall be deemed disposed or bequeathed, by any such person as claims or demands according to her true intent of her my will. Item I give and bequeath her said messuage or tenement together with the messuage and all her said land meadows and pastures, both free and copy hereditaments belonging or appurtenant, and all her said house and garden of her said house together with the house and other of her, together with her said house and garden, after her decease of her said Alice my wife and her husband or remainder of her and other of her, unto Josias Clerk my brother her son and assigns forever. Item I give unto her said Josias Clerk some of her said estate, my two horses and one gelding a quarter of wheat my long coat a timber chest a garnish, Item one standing table in her said house her chimney, and all her furniture hereditaments, also a brass pot and a kettle which I bought at Southwark, one spit next her best and a dipping pan. Item I give unto Josias Clerk daughter of William Clerk her son of her said house. Item I give unto Margaret daughter my servant who died to Elizabeth daughter of her at her age of 16 years. Item I give to her said people of her house of Southam Eastham, Stamford Briggall and Thrope, to have 200 lb to be paid by my executor or his assigns after my decease. And I do make constitute and assign her said Josias Clerk, her son of her said estate my sole and only executor of her my last will and testament. In witnes my hand I gave to her my last will set my hand and seal the day and year first above written, her being witnesses.

 Josias Clerk. Arnold Clerk. John Clerk and Richard Perrett.

Witnessed 27 July 1608 before me in Robert Notary Public in the County of Northamptonshire and his co-jurors.