

I the man of god and true faith the day of August in Anno d. m. c. c. l. v. and in the year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Elizabeth by the grace of god Queen of England France and Ireland Defender of the faith and in the year of your said reign of Thomas the of pleshauden in the parishes of Gougham in the County of Essex and in the Diocese of London woman being sick of body but of good and perfect Remembrance Thank be given to the almighty and ever living god herfore I do make and ordaine to be my last will and Testament in manner and form following I give after expressed first and principally I will give and bequeath my whole unto almighty god my weak and maker Sabour and labour and my body to be buried in the churchyard of Gougham aforesaid or where of pleaseth god to call me I then I will give and bequeath to Thomas the son of my daughter some portion of of good money of England I then I will and bequeath to Richard the son of my daughter some portion of like money I then I will and bequeath to Margaret the daughter of my daughter some portion of like money I then I will give and bequeath unto my son some portion of good and lawful money of England named Margaret and Elizabeth and either of them to be their heirs and to be paid at their the year after my decease I will and bequeath to my son some portion of good and lawful money of England in full satisfaction of all debt and charges that he ought to pay either in my goods or land and if he be not content with that of my mind and will is he shall have nothing I then I will give the son of my daughter some portion of like money to be paid unto him within one year after my decease I then I will and bequeath unto also that my daughter some portion of good and lawful money of England to be pay or assigned within one year next after my decease then I give unto the said Alice what five hundred platters and one dish of pewter two brass platters and one kettle of brass then I will and bequeath to every one of your children your many shillings for the use of my house and store of them to be shared gives then I will and bequeath, and my mynd is that the residue of all my goods rathell my debt being payed the legacies of this my last will and testament being done and performed and my body shortly brought unto the earth to get some the same so I will give and bequeath the same unto Richard Spelman and Joane his wife for the great paynes to be done taken in and in sickness and in death and further must take my mind among my best and I nominate and appoint the said Richard Spelman and Joane his wife myne executor of this my last will and testament and I appoint George Gable at Taylor street reason I will to stand for the paynes to be done in the Court to this my last will and testament if stand put my hand and seals the day and place above written this being my last will and testament and under written then I give unto the poor people of the parish of St. Mary's

James J. Parker
 Andrew Foster

Signe +
 Thomas Gable

REPAIRED
AT JP 1955

Testament
John Garside
to Garsam

Read first given by the court and after that the same was read by the court and after that the same was read by the court and after that
the same was read by the court and after that
the same was read by the court and after that

Thomas

of London

born of London

C + H

P/175 11/266

1875 200 years

